OLD PRISON OF TROIS-RIVIÈRES

Entering the Old Prison of Trois-Rivières is much more than just a visit to a historic building; it’s a glimpse at prisoners’ living conditions in the penal system of the 1960s and 1970s. The guides who answer visitors’ questions at the Old Prison of Trois-Rivières are former inmates. Based on personal accounts and faithful reconstructions, the Musée Québécois de culture populaire Go To Jail exhibit gives visitors a very strong, very real and sometimes disturbing experience.

Location: Trois-Rivières | <https://museepop.ca/en/old-prison/history>

B & B LA VIEILLE ÉCOLE

This beautiful and unique building stands majestically overlooking the St. Maurice River. Its structure has been restored over several years to recreate the beauty of this original schoolhouse and convent of Grandes-Piles. Originally built in the late 1880s, the only west wall is original. Eventually, the east extension was added in 1924, and the sisters of the Assumption moved in, and the building became a convent. They became the teachers, and classes were held in the original schoolhouse.

Location: Grandes-Piles (near Trois-Rivières) | <http://www.lavieilleecole.ca/>

AU DIABLE VERT – TREEHOUSE CABINS

The mountain-side Inn Au Diable Vert allows you to lodge in one of the two rustic tree houses in the woods. They are 12-15 feet high, perched up in between two trees and accessible through a staircase or ramp. This type of accommodation provides direct contact with nature and life in the forest. Drift off into your dreams on double sized bunk beds with soft mattresses. Lighting is supplied by solar panels. A stay in one of these two tree houses is a dream come true... probably one you've been having since your early childhood days.

Location: Glen-Sutton | <https://www.audiabilevert.qc.ca/en/>

ASTROLAB – MONT-MÉGANTIC

The ASTROLab in Mount Mégantic Park is an interpretation center that offers visitors activities, introducing them to the world of astronomy. Mont-Mégantic is a National Dark Sky Reserve. What better than to sleep up near the stars? Two huts are available for an unforgettable night in winter, spring and fall. The Voie lactée hut, at the peak of Mount Mégantic, has room for eight. The Mount St. Joseph hut accommodates two. They will take your breath away! Summit shelters do not have access to drinking water.

ENTRE CÎMES ET RACINES

Entre Cîmes et Racines (our name means “between root and crown”) is a family business offering accommodation in the woods near Eastman, Québec. An hour away from Montréal, our 12 ecolodges help you relax and get away from it all in the heart of nature. See us, and you can both unplug and reenergize at any time of the year in 175 acres (71 hectares) of the forest.

Location: Bolton-Est | <https://entrecimesetracines.com/en/>

LE PETIT CLOCHER

A distinctive lodge is an elegant mountain-view retreat with upscale contemporary French Country décor and attention to luxurious details. While La Chapelle has a unique romantic appeal and is the most in “over the top” guest rooms, each of them is special with its ambiance. The grounds are private and peaceful, offering stunning panoramic views of the ski slopes and village which is within walking distance to galleries, boutiques, fine dining, and entertainment.

Location: Saint-Sauveur-des-Monts | <http://www.lepetitclocher.com/>

IGLOFT

An innovative concept which is a comfortable lodge on ice with heated floors, washrooms, drinking water, bread oven, and range. You will feel like you are sleeping under the stars on frozen Lake Saint-Jean.

Location: Saint-Gédéon | <https://www.igloft.com/>

ZOO ST-FÉLICIEN

The Walking Adventure in the Land of the Caribou offers you rare and intimate contact with wildlife. Accompanied by an experienced guide, you will discover, learn and observe the animals. This activity will let you experience an out of the ordinary adventure of living at the pace of the caribou. This adventure includes a night in a prospector's tent amid the herd of caribou. Are you looking for another out of this world experience? The Zoo Sauvage activity 'Sleeping at the Zoo in Asia' will satisfy your need for doing something different. See the Zoo under the stars and spend the night near our Amur tigers, a night-time activity that will leave unforgettable memories. You'll spend the night in the Welcome Center of the Amur tiger habitat.

Location: St-Félicien | <https://zoosauvage.org/en/>

PARC AVENTURES CAP JASEUX

A favourite spot for nature lovers, the site offers a variety of outdoor recreation and ecotourism activities. Alternative accommodations available, such as tree houses, suspended spheres, domes, log cabins, and campsites. Also features aerial adventure trails for the whole family, extreme courses, zip lines, via ferrata, sea kayaking, sailing, hiking, fishing, and a beach.

Location: St-Fulgence | <https://www.capjaseux.com/en/>

VILLAGE HISTORIQUE DE VAL-JALBERT

This historical village depicts the mono-industrial town of the 1920s, Val-Jalbert. From the convent to the post office, from the gossips at the general store and the pulp mill, take a glimpse at the daily lives of working-class families of the era. You will live through their confusion when the announcement came that their village was closing in 1927. From high up in the cable car, you will be overcome with emotion before the power of the Chute Ouatouchouan. In the silence of the campground at night or in one of the site's rooms, you'll wonder if the marvellous waterfall that fuelled the mill, now keeps the old village alive.

Location: Val-Jalbert | <https://www.valjalbert.com/en>
